Funded by Bloomberg Philanthropies, Emerson Collective, the Ford Foundation, and the Kresge Foundation, the Hub will help local leaders navigate the nearly 400 available funding opportunities. It will help cities and towns develop competitive applications most likely to be awarded federal grants. There will also be a special focus on helping traditionally underserved cities and towns. Sign up for updates on the Hub, planned for launch in July.

- ❖ The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) Rural Development is seeking applications for loans and grants to support rural water and waste disposal systems. Applications are accepted year-round, and technical assistance is available. USDA's Water and Environmental Programs can assist with constructing or improving infrastructure through loans, grants, and loan guarantees. USDA can also partner with rural water and waste service providers to finance infrastructure that aims to protect the cyber security of their facilities. The Water and Environmental Programs at USDA were recently expanded, and guaranteed loans are now available to smaller communities that have the financial strength to take advantage of conventional credit as well as larger communities with populations of up to 50,000. USDA also has technical assistance resources available through partnering organizations. USDA's resources are not limited to communities that have already received a loan or grant through Rural Development. Any water or waste disposal system in an eligible rural area may benefit from technical assistance. For more information on the resources available reach out to your local USDA Community Program Specialist. Applications under this initiative will be submitted electronically to the ALDOT State Traffic and Safety Operations Engineer.
